

WWP EN Annual Workshop 2018
Journey to Accountability: Theory and Practice

Wednesday 3rd October 2018

12:00-13:00	Arrivals and Registration
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-14.30	Welcome & programme preview
14:30-16:15	World Cafe: What is Accountability? Interactive session - Getting to know each other and exchanging ideas
16:15-16:30	Coffee break
16:30-18:00	4 Workshops
	Three levels to integrate identity focused around values (accountability, care, safety) in work with perpetrators Dorota Dyjakon	Working with responsibility in men's individual therapy Cecilie Guldvog (ATV) and Roland Reisewitz (Agredis)	"Perpetrator inside me" - Using personal experiences to increase professional effectiveness Stanislav Khotckii and Andrey Kolpakov (Men of the 21st Century)	Accountability for treatment of perpetrators of violence, to their families and to society Torbjörn Trolte
18:15-19:30	Dinner at Hotel
20:00	"A Better Man" Documentary

Funded by the European Union

OAK
 FOUNDATION

WWP EN Annual Workshop 2018
Journey to Accountability: Theory and Practice

Thursday 4th October 2018

8:30-8:50	Signing in for the day
9:00-09:30	Feedback from previous day
9:30-10:30	Keynote speech: Maschile Plurale, Marco Deriu - "What story do we think we are part of?" The accountability towards gender-based violence as personal and collective journey"
10.30-10:45	Coffee Break
10:45-11:15	Child Protection Issues/Policy Plenary
11:15-11:25	Short Break
11:25-13:00	WWP EN European Campaign - Promoting perpetrator programmes WWP EN General Assembly (members only)
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:00	Interactive viewing of members' posters
15:00-16:30	4 Workshops
	Using technology for your organisation's benefit Anna McKenzie (WWP EN)	Training and roadmap for frontline professionals for the referral of perpetrators: Engage Project Alessandra Pauncz (CAM) and Heinrich Geldschläger (Conexus)	WWP EN projects: Running and planned projects, content and member participation Ralf Puchert (WWP EN)	Challenging toxic masculinity norms as a way to address and prevent men's violence against women Julia Engström & Åsa Sertenius Strivér (Unizon) Karin Caspani & Lena Berg (MÅN)
16:30-16:45	Coffee Break
17:00	Leave hotel for social event and dinner

Funded by the European Union

OAK
FOUNDATION

WWP EN Annual Workshop 2018
Journey to Accountability: Theory and Practice

Friday 5th October 2018

8:00-8:30	Check-out: key return, luggage storage
8:30-8:45	Signing in for the day
8:45-9:30	Feedback from the previous day
9:30-10:15	Challenges and Experiences: Lessons learnt and adapting practice to changing times
10:15-10:30	Coffee break
10:30-12:00	4 Workshops
	Reflections through letter writing on pathways to accountability Alessandra Pauncz (CAM)	Accountability and partnerships: WWP EN's study on good practice and where do we go from there? Natalia Batenkova (Unizon) and Atila Uligaj (Woman to Woman)	Family and wider networks as antidote for violence Kris Decremer (Interactie-Academie)	Engaging with Men and Boys: Experiences from the Bosnian Context Dajana Ilic and Dejan Lazarevic (Buducnost)
12:00-12:30	Closing and evaluation
12:30-13:30	Lunch

Funded by the European Union

OAK
FOUNDATION